

Objective	Web design position
Education	September 2003 - September 2006 Brooks Institute of Photography, Santa Barbara, California Major in Digital Imaging
Qualifications	Web/Graphic Design. Trained in a variety of web/graphic design disciplines including: publication design, logo design, identity system design, usability testing, and web deliverables. Photography Tabletop, industrial, action adventure, portraiture, digital retouch, and color management.
Skills	Working knowledge of XHTML, CSS, W3C standards, WordPress, Adobe Flash (Actionscript 2), Adobe Creative Suite CS3.
Freelance	Designer/Developer Nahirnyj Designs (nahirnyjdesigns.com) Over the past two years I have been involved in a variety of freelance work including: web site design, web production, usability testing, photography, digital retouch, and 3d animation.
Employment	September 2008 – Present Captive Design Studios. Flushing MI Lead Web Designer / Developer Oversee all development of web projects. Responsibilities include preliminary site analysis, site architecture, creating site design, and front-end development. 2006 – September 2008 Interactive Training Systems, Fenton MI Web Developer / Multimedia Developer Responsible for developing design layouts used for interactive training and web use. Clients include: Vovlo, ABB, and Ford. 2004 – 2006 Brooks Institute of Photography, Santa Barbara, CA Black and white laboratory assistant Responsible for laboratory equipment checkout and providing help to students. 2000 – 2003 Interactive Training Systems, Fenton MI Project Coordinator While at Interactive Training Systems (ITS), I was responsible for coordinating the production of interactive knowledge systems from start to delivery. These responsibilities included: managing a production team, creative interactive media including 3d animation, user interfaces, digital video, and engineering operation procedures.